

The Synergy Turf

The Official Newsletter of National Aphasia Synergy

Feature Story

The Interview About to Senator John Fetterman

#WOW!! #LPAA
#BlownAway
#JohnFetterman

WATCH VIDEO

Shout-out

NAS' Peer-Befriending Project

by Rebecca, Trish, Angie, Jane, Will, Kait, Denise, Bruce, Victoria and Paige

WATCH VIDEO

#Peer-Befriending #LPAA
#MentalHealth #Ally

Share

How Emotions Affect Naming Pictures for People with Aphasia Research

WATCH VIDEO

#AphasiaResearch #LPAA
#Advocate #MentalHealth

BENEFITS FOR PEOPLE WITH APHASIA

- Positive effects on mood
- Helps combat loneliness and boredom
- Social connection

all about hope

zoom saved

How Positive and Negative Emotions Affect Naming Pictures for People with Aphasia
By: Tyson Harmon, Courtney Nielsen, Corinne Loveridge, Camille Williams

People with aphasia can feel negative emotions when communicating.

People with aphasia can have a hard time finding words.

Naming objects measures how well someone can find words.

Sometimes emotions make it hard to find words.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
INFO@NATIONALAPHASIASYNERGY.ORG

